On Rosh Hashana, we all stand in judgment before G-d, "Like a flock of sheep before the shepherd." If we are worthy, we are inscribed in the Book of Life. Ten days later, on Yom Kippur, the Book is sealed.

Through repentance, prayer, and charity, we can sweeten the decree, and merit G-d's blessings for health, wellbeing, and prosperity for the coming year.

The Shofar

On the two days of Rosh Hashana we must hear the sounding of thirty of the prescribed blasts of the shofar, the ram's horn.

The shofar, the oldest and most soulful of wind instruments, has many meanings.

Among them:

- It proclaims the coronation of G-d as King of the Universe
- It reminds us of the shofar heard at Mount Sinai, when we accepted G-d's commandments for all time
- Its sound awakens us to repent and return to G-d
- It represents the simple, primal outcry from the depths of the soul
- It presages the call of the Great Shofar that G-d will sound with the coming of Moshiach, speedily in our days

Tashlich

On the first day of Rosh Hashana, following the afternoon prayer, we visit a body of water or pond containing live fish and recite the Tashlich prayers, in which we cast away our sins.

As fish depend upon water, so do we depend upon G-d's providence. Also, a fish's eyes never close, symbolizing G-d's unceasing watchfulness over us.
